

Name:
AP World History
Unit 6, section one
Lesson One Activity

Class Period:
Date:

Lesson Objective: Students will examine the social context of the 19th century Middle East and North Africa and analyze how various religious groups interacted and understood one another.

As you read about the life of Emir Abdelkader, record anything that surprises you or is new to you. Find at least three pieces of information to record. All work needs to be in sentences. For explanations, provide facts and details for full credit. (40 points total for section one; 40 points for section two; 20 points for closer)

Reading title: _____

New to me #1:
Why was this surprising or new?
New to me #2:
Why was this surprising or new?
New to me #3:
Why was this surprising or new?

Presenter One name:

Page: 34-The First Eight Years 35-Theology and the Prophet 36-Pilgrimage 37-The Monks of Jesus

What surprised me the most:
Why?

Presenter Two name:

Page: 34-The First Eight Years 35-Theology and the Prophet 36-Pilgrimage 37-The Monks of Jesus

What surprised me the most:
Why?

Presenter Three name:

Page: 34-The First Eight Years 35-Theology and the Prophet 36-Pilgrimage 37-The Monks of Jesus

What surprised me the most:
Why?

Closer: Which of your facts did the group find most surprising/new? (circle one) 1 2 3

Why do you think that was?